Together for Gospel Joy*

Philippians 1:1-2

Key Idea:

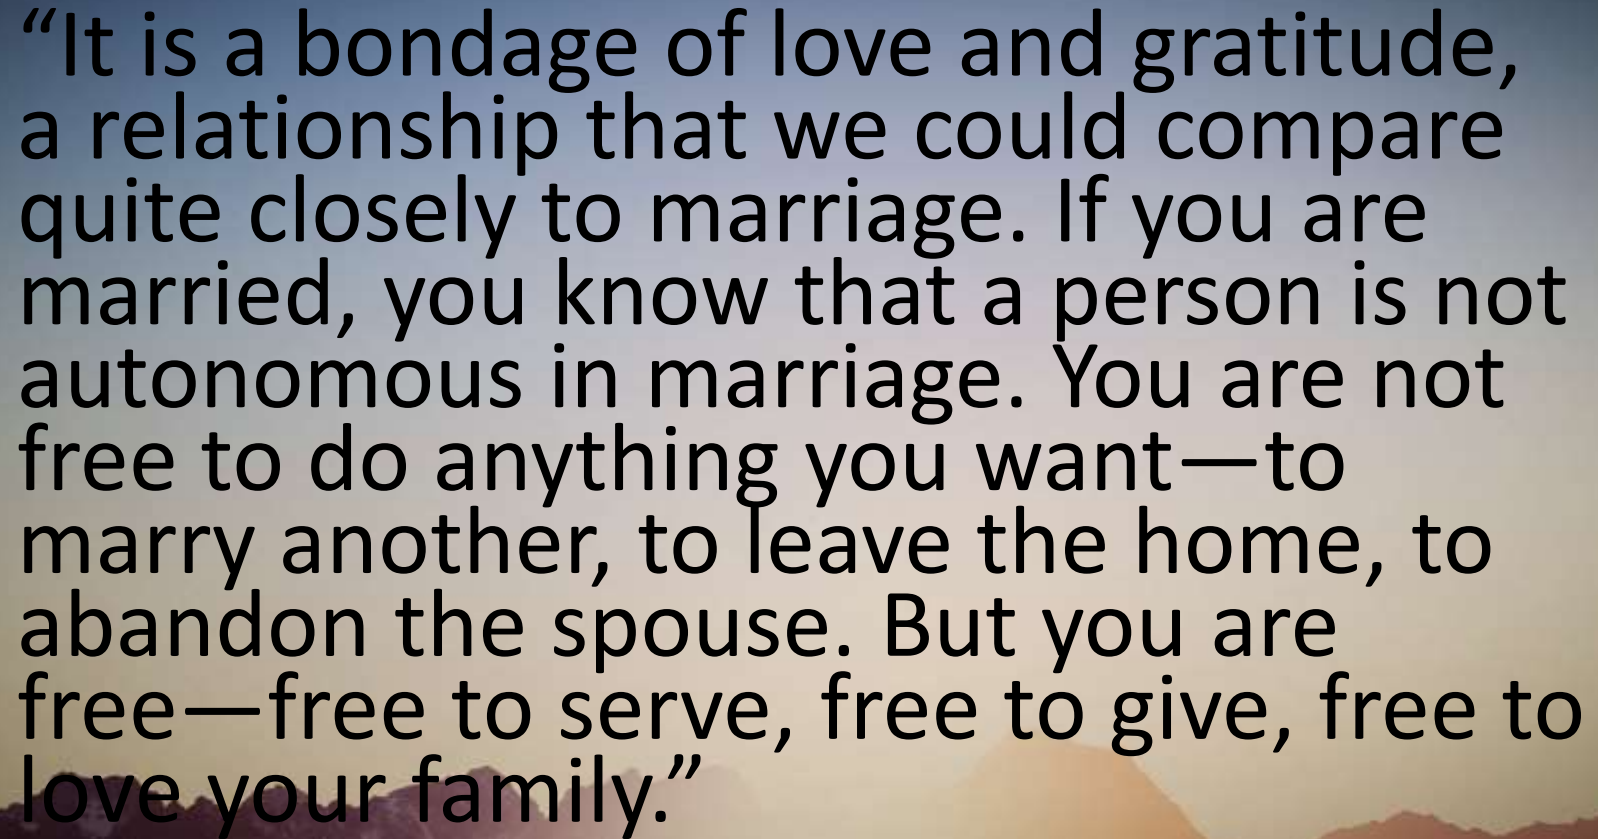

The Gospel is worthy of partnering together in order to seek the joy of our community in Jesus Christ.

1. The Fellowship of Gospel Joy.

a. The Servants.

“It is a bondage of love and gratitude, a relationship that we could compare quite closely to marriage. If you are married, you know that a person is not autonomous in marriage. You are not free to do anything you want—to marry another, to leave the home, to abandon the spouse. But you are free—free to serve, free to give, free to love your family.”

—James Montgomery Boice

b. The Saints.

“I have been crucified with Christ;
it is no longer I who live, but Christ
lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith
in the Son of God, who loved me
and gave Himself for me.”

(Galatians 2:20)

c. The Leaders.

d. For the Joy of the City.

Gospel joy is found when the people of God connect the Gospel of God to their communities by doing life as the called out people of God in the context of their neighborhoods and friends.

2. The Fountain of Gospel Joy.

a. Grace

b. Peace

A silhouette of a person standing on a rocky outcrop, with their arms outstretched horizontally. The person is positioned on the left side of the frame. The background is a bright, hazy sunset or sunrise over a mountain range, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a strong glow and lens flare effect. The sky transitions from a pale yellow near the horizon to a clear blue at the top. The overall mood is one of hope, freedom, and partnership.
